Goochain is a professional manufacturer of USB charging stations. We have produced various types of high-quality charging stations.

As a leading professional charging station factory, all products are passed ISO 13485, ISO 9001 CE Certificate, we have our own production line and support OEM ODM, we have made USB Hub Stand for iPad, and Hub Charging Station for Laptop,

The 16 ports are manufactured with the latest upgrade technology, and each port has an independent chip, which can effectively prevent mutual interference between each port and ensure the safety of charging equipment. With the help of a smart USB port, you can quickly and easily centralize and organize your home or office with a single 16-port USB that saves electricity. When the times need to connect multiple USB devices at the same time (such as printers, card readers, mobile phones, iPods, thumb drives, mice, keyboards or external hard drives), it is especially suitable for laptops with only a few ports. It can be used in the following situations: powerful mobile game studios, hotels, schools, shopping centers, business halls and other places. Can provide more mobile phone charging functions at the same time.
